Any taxation or duty arising in connection with the Services provided to you shall be borne exclusively by you.

The Bank shall not provide any advice on taxation and/or the Customer's tax position. You therefore remain entirely responsible for your tax affairs, including the submission of any applicable returns and payments and the compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Termination of Services

We reserve the right at our sole discretion to terminate the provision of any and/or all Services at any time, and without providing any justification for our decision, by sending you a notice in writing specifying the date on which such termination shall take place. If we are unable to obtain instructions from you as to such delivery and transfer, we shall be entitled, upon giving you notice in writing, to deliver and transfer all your assets or money to a delegate, transferee or assignee we shall appoint at our discretion and on such terms as we shall deem fit and at your expense; and
 - d. Subject to the above, refund to you pro rata share of any fee that has been paid in advance.

The termination of any Service will not affect any outstanding order or transaction or any legal rights or obligations that may have already arisen. We will complete transactions in progress at the date of termination as soon as reasonably possible. In addition, you confirm that when you terminate an Account in accordance with these General Terms, all guaranteed forms of payment you issued have been debited from the Account(s) prior to closure and that all unused cheques issued for use on the Account(s) have been destroyed. Termination of any one or more Accounts shall not affect the remaining Account(s).

In the latter case, the Payee's payment service provider shall be liable towards the Payee for the correct execution of the Payment Transaction.

If we, acting as the Payee's payment service provider, are liable for non-executed or defective Payment Transactions, we shall immediately place the amount of the Payment Transaction at the Payee's disposal with a Value Date being no later than the date on which the amount would have been value dated had the Payment Transaction been correctly executed.

In such cases, at the Payer's request, the Bank shall trace the relevant Payment Transaction and notify the Payer of the outcome without charging any fee.

The Bank shall not be liable in cases of non-execution of a Payment Transaction due to abnormal and unforeseeable circumstances beyond the Bank's control or due to the Bank's compliance with its legal obligations.

The procedure for registration of Customer Delegates/eWealth/FOREX Users is set out in the relevant Application Form or eWealth/FOREX Corporate Resolution. Failure to follow such stipulated procedure set out in the Application Form may result in you or any of your Customer Delegates/eWealth/FOREX Users being unable to access fully or in part any COS.

4. Customer Instructions

We will only accept a Customer Instruction if it has been effected through the COS using the appropriate Password(s) and in accordance with the COS Terms and as shall be prescribed by the Bank from time to time.

You request and authorise us to treat all apparently valid Customer Instructions received by the Bank as instructions properly authorised by you, even if they conflict with the

You are responsible to ensure that the use of COS is in accordance with existent laws, rules and regulations (whether pertaining to Malta or any other country) as applicable to you.

In the event that you request us to cancel or modify any Customer Instruction, we will make all reasonable efforts to comply with your request. In the event that we do not act on or cancel or delay acting on a Customer Instruction we shall, where possible, notify you of this as soon as is reasonably possible.

A transaction being carried out is not always simultaneous with a Customer Instruction being given. Some transactions may take time to process and certain Customer Instructions may only be processed during normal banking hours even though COS is online and may be accessible outside such hours. Payment instructions may also be processed on a specific implementation date if so specified by the Customer.

As part of certain COS, you may issue a Customer Instruction requesting us to forward certain information to third parties on your behalf. If we agree to act on such request, we will use reasonable efforts to forward any such information to the recipient and address specified in the relevant Customer Instruction within a reasonable time of receipt of such Customer Instruction. You must ensure that the information you ask us to forward, is complete, accurate and will not give rise to any claim against us (including without limitation any claim of defamation, in relation to privacy or for infringement of any other third party rights) and you agree to keep us fully indemnified from any claims or demands arising therefrom.

Customer agrees that if there is any requirement to verify two or more signatures on transfers of funds, such requirement shall not apply to Customer Instructions for funds transfers, including online funds transfers, using COS. Customer is responsible to establish the appropriate Account controls thereby mitigating any potential risks if any template review is carried out by users who are authorised pursuant to the same corporate profile. Customer releases the Bank from all and any liability in respect of any losses or damages incurred by the Customer as a result, whether directly or indirectly, of transfers or payments made in accordance with Customer Instructions. Customer acknowledges that limitations on individual or joint authorities to transfer funds under other agreements entered into with the Bank will not apply to Customer Instructions on COS. Customer acknowledges that limitations on such access can only be controlled by the Customer and the Corporate Administrators, not the Bank. The Bank will not be liable to the Customer or any business entity for any loss, damage, or expense arising from access to an account by a Secondary User and the Customer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Bank harmless against all actions, claims or demands arising from actions of a Secondary User.

We shall carry out future dated transactions on the first Business Day following the indicated date of transaction if the date indicated for transaction is not a Business Day. If the available balance/daily limit is insufficient on the date when the transaction is to be effected we will not process the transaction.

The Customer warrants that all details submitted under COS are true and correct.

5. Service Interruption

We may suspend any Service provided to you under the COS without notice where we consider it necessary or advisable to do so, for example to protect you when there is a suspected breach of security or we need to suspend the COS for any other reasons.

Whenever possible, we will use reasonable efforts to inform you without undue delay through the COS, and/or our website if any Service provided by COS is not available. In the event that we have levied any charge to you which is specifically expressed to be for a particular COS which is not available then we will reimburse you this sum. Other than reimbursing any fee as set out above, we will have no further liability towards you.

It may be necessary from time to time to suspend some or all of the COS for routine, non-routine or emergency maintenance where we consider it necessary to do so. In the event of such a suspension being necessary, we will in so far as is possible, provide you with a reasonable period of notice prior to the suspension.

Where you receive any information supplied to us by an Institution via COS, we make no warranty as to the accuracy or sufficiency of the information provided by that Institution. In order that an Institution may give effect to a Customer Instruction, you agree that we may, as your agent, agree with any Institution that where applicable the provisions of the COS Terms will apply between you and the Institution.

We may appoint other parties to provide some or all of the COS under the COS Terms. You agree that such parties shall have the benefit of any provisions of the COS Terms which limit our liability.

7. Confidentiality

We will take reasonable care to ensure that information about you and all Customer Delegates and/or eWealth/FOREX Users which is stored or transmitted using any COS remains confidential and shall be treated in accordance with our Privacy Notice that can be viewed on our website.
